

The traffic reports especially are extremely important to us. They are much more detailed than the regular radio stations and allow us to do a better job of planning our routes to save time. This saves money, gas usage and reduces engine emissions.